

ŚRĪ KAMALADHĀRIṆĪ KOṬI MANTRA-JAPA SĀDHANĀ

For Relief from Financial Strain, Dharmic Wealth, Health and Prosperity

Śrī Kamalā is the radiant Lakṣmī aspect among the Daśa Mahāvidyās. As Kamaladhāriṇī, the Divine Mother seated upon and bearing the lotus, She represents purity, abundance, auspiciousness, dignity and prosperity arising through righteous effort.

In the Bhagavad Gītā, Bhagavān Śrī Kṛṣṇa assures:

अनन्याशिचिन्तयन्तो मां ये जनाः पर्युपासते । तेषां नित्याभियुक्तानां योगक्षेमं वहाम्यहम् ॥ ९.२२ ॥

Ananyāś cintayanto mām ye janāḥ paryupāsate । teṣāṃ nityābhiyuktānāṃ yoga-kṣemaṃ vahāmyaham.

“Those who constantly contemplate Me with undivided devotion and worship Me wholeheartedly—to them I bring what they need and protect what they possess.”

Here, yoga means the attainment of what is necessary but not yet acquired, while kṣema means the protection and preservation of what has already been gained. Divine grace supports the devotee by providing right understanding, favourable opportunities and the inner strength required for dharmic accomplishment.

The worship of Śrī Kamaladhāriṇī is undertaken with prayers for relief from financial difficulties, settlement of lawful commitments, success in profession and enterprise, acquisition and preservation of wealth, good health, family harmony and lasting prosperity. Wealth gained through Dharma becomes a means for family welfare, service, charity and spiritual growth.

Through participation in this sacred Koṭi Mantra-japa Sāadhanā, devotees invoke the abundant grace of Śrī Lalitāmbikā under the guidance of:
